

BLF Award Winner - Leadership

BIO - Eve Clark

Eve Clark is President and CEO of MEB Construction, LLC a General Contracting firm specializing in Tenant finish out, Commercial renovations, Facility Maintenance and Concrete barriers. MEB Construction has been working Nationally and throughout the Metroplex for 5 years.

Eve was formally the Co-Chair of the Construction Industry Group at the DFWMSDC for the past two years. Eve currently serves on the Board for the Texas Youth Commission Volunteer advisory Council and is a member of the Architecture, Construction and Engineering Committee for the Women's Business Council Southwest. She also serves on The Dallas Opera's Amici Steering Committee. In addition, she is a mentor the Dallas and Arlington National Multiple Sclerosis Support Groups.

Extra-curricular activities include attending the Dallas Opera, The Black Academy of Arts and Letters, The Dallas Symphony and worldwide travel.

Eve is a native of Chicago, but got to Texas as soon as she could 8 years ago!! She is

Wife to Melvin, Mother to Aaron and Nana to Arieannah!

Eve's & MEB's previous awards include :

- 2008 Women's Council Southwest Rising Star
- 2009 Women's Council Southwest Lily Knox Award
- 2009 Women's Council Southwest - Women Working Together Award
- 2009 DFW Minority Supplier Development Volunteer of the Year
- 2009 Regional Hispanic Contractors Association Luna Award as a Rising Star
- 2010 Ernest & Young Winning Women finalist